Homestay Package

Situated at the heart of the Mediterranean, yet only a couple of hours flying time from major European cities, Malta is an ideal location to combine the learning of English with a variety of cultural activities in a beautiful and safe environment.

Our Homestay English language programme is designed to maximise your progress in English, in the shortest period of time, in a relaxed and hospitable environment. A qualified and experienced teacher will carefully design your one-to-one course to suit your language needs and interests. You can practise your English in an English-speaking surrounding, with a carefully allocated teacher.
